WHY DID JEREMIAH DIE?

Six years ago on the 27th March 2003 JEREMIAH DUGGAN, a jewish, british student died a violent death in Wiesbaden after attending a conference and youth training school organized by the LaRouche Schiller Institute. It was alleged Jeremiah was run over by cars. The case was closed quickly by the police who declared the drivers told them it was suicide. The British Court discounted suicide and stated Jeremiah died in a state of terror. Shortly before his death Jeremiah rung home saying he was frightened for his life and begging to be rescued from danger. For six years the family have battled through the courts to get their human right to an investigation of the full circumstances re-opened. The verdict is still awaited in the Karlsruhe Constitutional Court.

PUBLIC MEETING: 11- 1 pm

Days events: 2-3 pm Jeremiah's family and friends will do a Memorial walk to the place where Jeremiah's body was found. This spot is close to the EIR offices ( Bueso/LaRouche Press Agency) New evidence raises many questions however the LaRouche/Network deny any involvement in Jeremiah's death. They were in possession of his blood stained passport.

Town Protest: 9-10.30 am An appeal to the good people of Wiesbaden to consider the findings of the Berlin Conference 2008 that concluded that the international LaRouche/Bueso youth movement is a threat to the individual and a danger to Society. In 1994, the Büso party was described in the Bundestag as a political sect.
